Government charges

We will deduct any local and foreign government charges or taxes from each of the accounts you hold with us.

Fees and charges from other banks

Other banks may charge fees when you use your account. These may include:

- when you withdraw money at a local or international ATM. These fees will be included in the amount debited from your account when the transaction is completed
- when you make a SWIFT/telegraphic transfer either from your Citi account or from another bank.

Account closure

If your Citi Global Currency Account or Cash Investment Account is closed with a balance of less than $5 Australian Dollars (or foreign currency equivalent) at the date of closure, the credit balance will not be returned to you.

To avoid this, you can transfer your funds to another account.

Citi Global Currency Account, Citibank Plus Transaction Account, Cash Investment Account, Citibank Online Saver

Daily Withdrawal Limits ¹	Amount (AUD)
Citigold	$3,000
Citi Priority	$1,000
Citibanking	$1,000
Daily Transfer Limits to other financial institutions ²	Amount (AUD)
Citigold	$100,000
Citi Priority	$100,000
Citibanking	$100,000

1. Daily Withdrawal Limit is a combined daily limit across all accounts (including loan products) linked to your debit card and applies to all cash withdrawals and purchases through ATMs and at point of sale ('POS').

2. Limits apply to all domestic and overseas fund transfers, but do not apply when you are transferring between your own Citibank accounts. A separate $100,000 AUD limit applies to transfers from your Citibank Online Saver to a Nominated Linked Account that is not one of your own Citibank Accounts.

You may have a different Daily Withdrawal Limit if you request or have previously requested to change it.
