Important Tax Information for all Citi branded Account Holders

Quoting your Tax File Number

You do not have to quote your Tax File Number or claim an exemption, but if you do not, it could result in tax being deducted at the top marginal rate.

Joint accounts

If you operate a joint account you need to quote a tax file number for each joint account holder to prevent tax being deducted from your interest.

Claiming an exemption

Some people are exempt from quoting a Tax File Number. If you wish to claim an exemption, please complete Section 2.

Non-Residents of Australia for taxation purposes

By supplying your overseas address and completing Section 3, NAB will deduct withholding tax at the rate of 10% from all interest payments.
